

Introducing the Health Benefits Experience (HBX)

Our HBX platform is transforming health and benefits by giving companies a modern, digital experience that drives engagement and reduces costs.

Say hello to the future of health benefits.

We're reimagining health benefits to give people an experience that's more in line with their experience as consumers: easy, accessible and personalized to their unique needs. Consumerization is transforming the way we live our lives, and we're making sure health benefits keep up.

We're leading the category.

We designed our digital platform to be easy, intuitive and always on. Members can engage with their health benefits anywhere, anytime, to stay informed and make smarter decisions through their entire health journey.
