The HealthSource Solutions Difference

What makes HealthSource Solutions the right wellness partner for you? It's our people. We listen to your needs, customize your program, respect your budget and offer a personalized touch to all your wellness needs. Our vision is to 'enrich employee wellbeing' with a wellness solution that works for you.

- We offer a hands-on approach that simplifies your responsibilities.
- Every program we offer is customizable to your company size, budget, resources and goals.
- We learn about your company culture. Who are your employees? What is important to them? How can we best impact their health?
- We provide meaningful solutions that foster employee behavior change in all areas of wellbeing.
- We build a partnership with you that grows and aligns with your long term success.

HealthSource Solutions has been providing comprehensive worksite health promotion and fitness center management services since 1979.
