Problems Companies Like You Face

Lessons from distributed and sedentary workflow companies globally.

Disconnected Teams

“After adapting to the pandemic our workforce is working in a hybrid model, we are in need to increase the team spirit.”

Carl
Westkämper

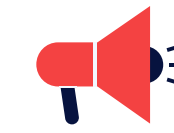

Lack of Activity

“Most of our employees work behind laptops and desks for 8 hours a day. It's easy to get lost in your work and not to give your body the movement that it needs.”

Katherin
Liimets

Low Engagement

“We have few enthusiastic people, but we want to get professional help and make employee wellness attractive to our whole community.”

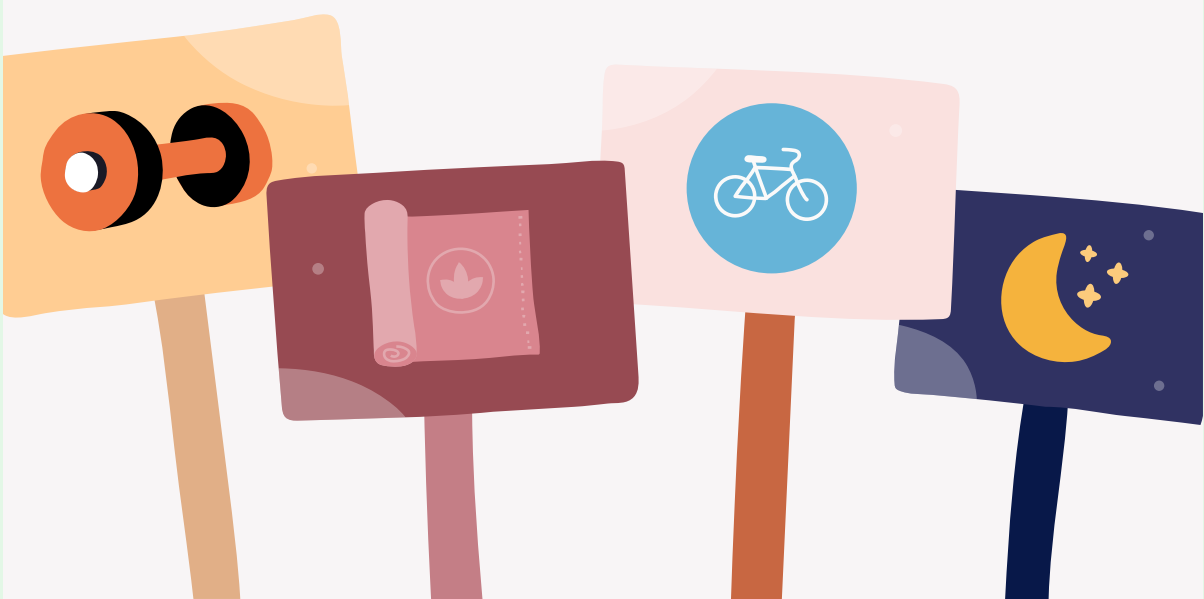

Svea
Zippenfennig
