Company and we will give 110%.

WorkProud® will align your employee programs and messaging to produce a Unified Employee Experience. We create cultures where employees are Proud of their Work and Proud of their Company.

Recognition is fundamental to the quality of the employee experience; it is the currency for paying into someone's sense of purpose, value, & ultimately, satisfaction.

Michael Levy
CEO

According to Gallup Research - workplace recognition motivates, provides a sense of accomplishment and makes employees feel valued for their work. Recognition not only boosts individual employee engagement, but increases productivity and loyalty to the company.

The common denominator that I've found in every single interview is that we want to be validated.

We want to be understood...

I heard it from President Bush.

I heard it from President Obama.

I've heard it from heroes and from housewives.... 'Was that okay?'

Testimonials

450+ concurrent program, 12 million+ users, 18+ years experience, 96% client retention rate.

Just want to say how much we love working with him. He always seeks to (and seems to) understand where we are coming from and inspires such confidence with his knowledge. He is the best!

We are even more excited to launch next month and truly appreciate such a strong team supporting us!

Having Online Rewards help with our management training not only took away stress but helped us successful implement & rolling out our new program.

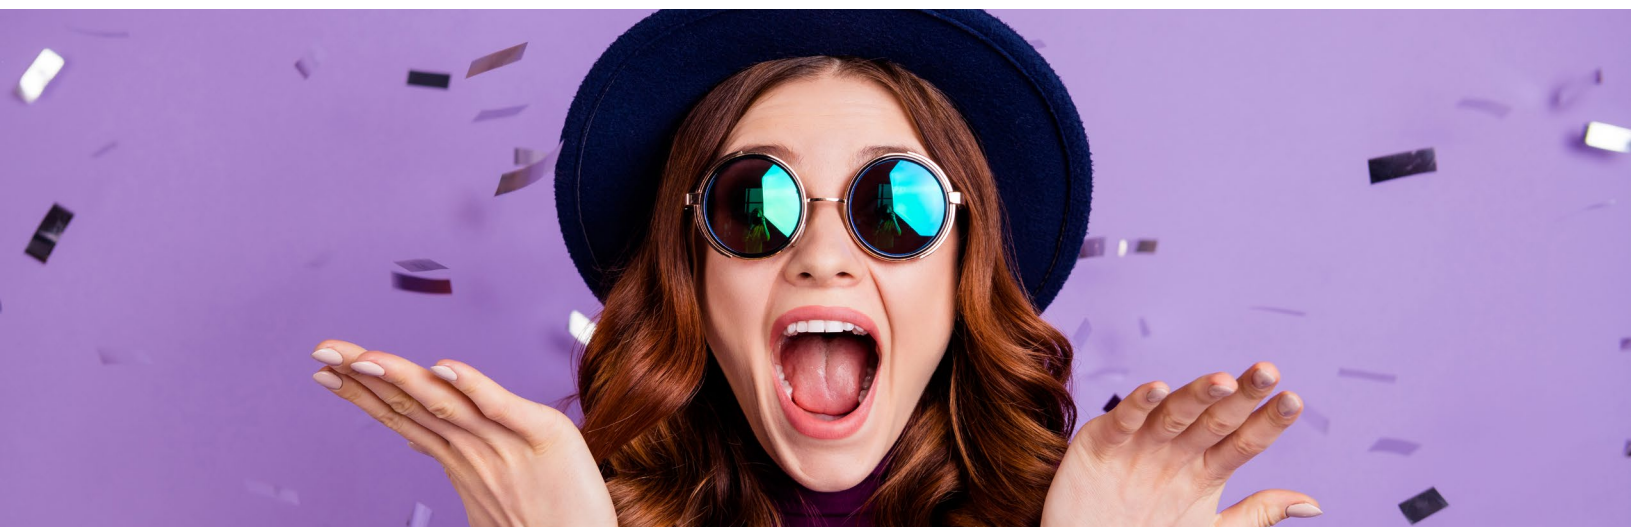

I appreciate everything your group does for us to support our employees. I look forward to our continued successful partnership!

We would like to express our gratitude for all their efforts in helping us to launch. We have found all our interactions to be a pleasure. I'd like to commend them both for their professionalism, patience and guidance. We are really pleased with the results and would highly recommend OLR to other companies.

Overall, the Online Rewards team has been wonderful to work with and we look forward to our continued partnership both now and in the future!

What Sets Us Apart

We are a service company that uses technology and change management techniques to build cultures of appreciation.

We focus on the employee experience - and align those positive experience with company objectives.

We build programs to client specifications - and no two client programs are the same.

We are catalog-agnostic - meaning you can include any reward in your program - even rewards that you supply.

We emphasize the value of non-monetary recognition over monetary awards.

We have dedicated account teams who work to ensure program success - partnering and collaborating with each client's HR department.

Our programs grow and evolve over time with features being added along with the growth and development of each clients' program.

Our expertise in working in non-traditional formats ensures we are always at the cutting edge of creativity, technology and rewards to deliver the biggest program impact.
