

Simplified benefits administration

bringing clarity to complexity

We are Aptia, your specialist benefits administration partner.

In the highly complex world of health benefits, we strive to be better. Our sole focus is administration – and we do it with genuine passion knowing we make a difference in your participants' lives. With our experienced team, backed by insight and unmatched technical expertise, we are changing the world of benefits administration for the better.

We are specialists

We focus solely on benefits administration, develop the best talent and deliver smarter solutions to help you achieve your goals.

We are responsive

We are agile and constantly simplify the administration process, enabling better decision making and faster resolutions.

We are thoughtful

Our people care about clients, understand their needs and are dedicated to exceeding expectations in every area of the business.

What sets us apart

Client focused

Our people-centric approach makes us outcome-oriented and accountable for our actions.

Energized, invested team

Our significant investment in an academy-based training and development program helps us build a team of passionate and innovative colleagues.

Future-ready solutions

Mobile apps, AI, latest platforms...we offer future-ready technology and make continual investments to anticipate and adapt to emerging trends.

Service first approach

As a team, we see far beyond administration. We see the people behind the policies and provide wealth and health administration support for their needs.
