Mary Molnar is an occupational therapist (OT) in addition to her role as co-owner of Senior Care Authority-Greater Cleveland. Through her experience working with older adults as an OT in the community, in seniors' own homes and in the acute hospital setting Mary sees first-hand the struggles many older adults face on a daily basis. Mary's familiarity and knowledge of local senior communities and institutional facilities as well as her expertise in the physical, psychosocial and environmental needs of aging individuals are invaluable assets when matching a senior with the most appropriate senior living community or as a trusted eldercare advisor if moving is not the immediate or most appropriate option.

Mary has experienced first-hand the time consuming and overwhelming challenges of helping older family members navigate health and housing changes. Mary has a passion for helping others and for advocating on behalf of those who are unable, oftentimes due to lack of knowledge, to do so for themselves. Mary is committed to lifelong learning. She is a Certified Senior Advisor (CSA) and is working toward an Aging Life Care Specialist designations as well as a specialty in OT home modifications. Mary is actively involved in her church and community and enjoys time with family, friends and in the outdoors.

MARK MOLNAR

Mark Molnar brings a wealth of experience to Senior Care Authority including over 15 years of managing relationships and investments with leading Wall Street firms as well as leadership positions with middle market companies. He has owned and operated several successful businesses in a variety of industries from urban education to corporate purchasing before focusing his efforts on the senior market. Mark most recently served as the CFO at Corporate United.

After the sale of Corporate United in 2017, Mark was looking for an opportunity to use his business experience to help individuals on a more personal level. His own experience working through the challenges of supporting his aging parents with little help or advocacy led him to believe there was an opportunity to help others navigate this journey. His experience coupled with Mary's passion to improve the lives of seniors allows the team to provide a broad perspective on senior-life decisions.

Tiffany Morgan comes to Senior Care Authority with years of Senior Caring Experience both personally and professionally. Tiffany was the primary caregiver for both parents for many years and learned much about the industry firsthand. During this time, she was also educated on Veteran Benefits by the VA Medical Center as well as the Veteran Service Commission.

More than 20 years working with hospitals in various roles, she developed a comfort level working with healthcare professionals. This led her to the Senior industry 6 years ago. She works with Geriatric physicians, nurses, case managers and social workers, assisting them with their senior patients and families when the senior's health and well-being require more care.

Tiffany has a vast knowledge of the local senior communities, their care levels, reputation and more. She knows who can and will care for senior loved ones through the end of life. No one likes to move so why move parents more than once?

Tiffany lives with her husband of 28 years, their two college students, and two furry kids- Brody and Boomer. We enjoy scuba diving when vacationing and anything outdoors in NEO.

Emily brings both enthusiasm and valuable work experience to Senior Care Authority. For five years prior to joining SCA, Emily led marketing and client relations for one of the leading Assisted Living and Memory Care communities in Northeast Ohio. In this role, Emily gained a deep understanding of the physical, emotional, and cognitive aspect of each senior in her community. She also gained an appreciation for the unique personalities of each resident and the difficult tasks that are required to provide quality care.

Emily is excited to expand her knowledgebase of senior living communities throughout Northeast Ohio and build lasting partnerships. She loves using her skills and understanding of the market to help seniors and families make the most informed decisions possible during often difficult moments. In addition to her work with seniors, Emily also enjoys spending time with children and nannies in her free time. Her and her husband's most recent project is their puppy, Baker (Go Browns!)

Stacie Feiock

Stacie Feiock is a caring professional in the elder health field that works to educate and assist families in need of senior living options. Through personal and professional experiences, Stacie has a comprehensive understanding of all areas of senior care, including home care, skilled home health, skilled nursing and rehabilitation and assisted living and memory care.

Stacie serves as Business Development Specialist for Senior Care Authority of Greater Cleveland. In this role, Stacie assists Northeast Ohio seniors and their families by connecting them with our senior care partners. She works closely with referral partners to help coordinate next steps following rehab, find solutions for those looking to right-size their retirement living or bring help into their home as they consider longer term options.

Stacie has over a decade of experience in the senior care industry and holds the certification of Certified Dementia Practitioner. She regularly attends education events to stay current on the latest research on dementia, Alzheimer's, and dementia care. Stacie has also been a regular supporter of the Alzheimer's Association of Greater East Ohio for over 10 years and has served the Association as a member of the annual Gala and Walk to End Alzheimer's committees for multiple years.

Stacie and her husband, Doug, live in rural Stark County where they enjoy spending time with family and friends. They have two wonderful children, Jill and Rick who are currently in college and a high-energy pooch, Greta, who keeps them on their toes.

Sandra Samay

440.789.9404 (cell) · sandra@seniorcareauthority.com

Sandra is an Occupational Therapy Assistant and Manager of Operations at Senior Care Authority with a long history of working with the aged population. Prior to becoming a therapy assistant, she worked with the Department of Job and Family Services as a case manager and worked as a private duty caregiver and office manager for a local Homecare Agency where she gained valuable insight of the senior population and their day to day barriers to maintaining their independence and aging with dignity.

Sandra has been a caregiver and advocate both personally and professionally. Her background and experience in homecare, skilled nursing and assisted living provides a unique perspective. She has witnessed clients, patients and their families struggle with the decision to age in place or transition to a safe, secure location where additional care is provided. Her goal is to advocate and reassure seniors and their families through the process and assist with a smooth transition.

When Sandra isn't working, she enjoys hiking and kayaking. She makes her home in Strongsville with her husband Rob, their 3 children and 2 fur babies Pippa and Penelope. She also enjoys gardening with the goal of attracting various Ohio birds. Her family looks forward to their yearly vacation to beautiful Cherry Grove South Carolina.
